PRESIDENT OF BANCA ETICA

Aldo Soldi is the president of Banca Etica since May 2025. He joined the Board of Directors of Banca Etica in 2019, and served as vice-president from 2022.

Before assuming the presidency of Banca Etica, he held top management roles in numerous cooperative and entrepreneurial organizations. Among his most significant appointments is the directorship of Coopfond, a mutual fund for the promotion and development of cooperative enterprises.

Aldo Soldi's professional commitment has extended to national and European organizations, where he has contributed to outlining and promoting inclusive and sustainable economic models. His role as vice-president of Cooperfidi Italia and a member of the board of directors of other relevant financial companies has further strengthened his knowledge of the social economy sector, both from a technical and ethical point of view.

He is member of the Board of Directors of the Libera Terra Mediterraneo Consortium, a partner organization of Banca Etica, dedicated to defending legality and active in enhancing assets confiscated from mafias, in full harmony with the values of social justice and civil responsibility that are at the core of ethical finance's mission.

He has been a lecturer in Cooperative Economics at university master's programs.

"The world increasingly needs ethical finance. The Banca Etica Group, in its over 25 years of history, has grown significantly, demonstrating the effectiveness of a financial model serving peace, the environment, and people. Operating in full consistency with the values that gave rise to Banca Etica, we are confident that we can contribute to changing the current economic and financial system, which has profit as its only compass, building instead societies founded on equitable and collective development, inclusive and ecologically sustainable" - Aldo Soldi, president of Banca Etica.
