Federica Ielasi is vice president of Banca Etica since May 17, 2025.

Full professor of Economics of Financial Intermediaries at the University of Florence, she holds a PhD in Markets and Financial Intermediaries from the University of Bologna. She is chair of the master's degree program in Finance and Risk Management at the Department of Economics and Management of the University of Florence and is a member of the teaching staff of the PhD program in Social Sciences for Sustainability and Wellbeing at the University of Florence – IMT Lucca.

She has held management positions at financial intermediaries and was a member of the Banking and Financial Ombudsman of the Bank of Italy.

She is the author of numerous national and international publications on banking management, access to credit, risk management, and ethical finance.

Active in the ethical finance movement for many years, Federica Ielasi served on the board of directors of Etica Sgr (the asset management company of the Banca Etica Group) from 2011 to 2023, holding the position of chair of the Investment Committee. Since 2023, she has been a member of the board of directors of Avanzi Etica Sicaf Euveca.

"I firmly believe in the urgent need to strengthen ethical finance as a fundamental pillar for building a more equitable and responsible economy. In this perspective, the contribution of women's vision and skills, supported by an increase in the presence of women in the governance of financial institutions and the specific weight of female entrepreneurship, are a key element of positive transformation. More generally, valuing diversity of viewpoints is essential to driving change towards a financial future that is more sustainable for the planet and more inclusive for people" - Federica Ielasi, Vice President of Banca Etica
