

NAZZARENO GABRIELLI

GENERAL DIRECTOR BANCA ETICA

Nazzareno Gabrielli has been general director of Banca Etica since 2021. From 2014 to 2021, he served as deputy general manager of Banca Etica.

Born in Rimini in 1963, married with two daughters and a son, he boasts a long career in the banking and financial sector, with diverse experience in various roles and functions in numerous institutions, from Banco Ambrosiano Veneto to Banca Intesa to Eticredito, before joining Banca Etica in 2009, initially as Area Director and Head of Innovation.

From 2019 to 2021, he was also a member of the board of directors of PerMicro Spa, a company specializing in microfinance and financial inclusion services.

Always committed to civil and social issues, Nazzareno Gabrielli was president of the fair trade cooperative Pacha Mama in Rimini between 2012 and 2015, and has played an active role in AGESCI and other ecclesiastical and trade union organizations.

He was a member of the board of directors of Fairtrade Italia.

"Banking is a service that builds economic systems, and banking based on the principles of ethical finance means investing in social inclusion and cohesion, protecting ecosystems, and generating a virtuous economy. Banca Etica demonstrates on a daily basis that this business model not only works effectively in the market, supporting people and organizations, but also has a positive impact on the community, thanks to the commitment of an attentive community that operates cooperatively." -
